Sir,

I have the honor to state that the President of the Sorab Taluk Board reports that it is very difficult to procure men locally for employment as Sweepers in the Unions of the Sorab Taluk and that the present scale of pay viz Rs 5/- per mensem is not large enough to attract men from outside. He therefore proposes to raise the pay of Sweepers employed in Anavatti and Hoodi-doddikoppa unions from Rs 5 to Rs 6 per mensem. These unions have been without Sweepers for the past four months for want of men. The question of raising the pay was discussed by the District Board that met on the 8th instant and it was resolved that the proposal might be recommended for Sanction of Government. A copy of the Board's resolution together with the Sorab Taluk Board's President's references noted in the margin are herewith submitted.

In these circumstances, I request you to be so good as to obtain Sanction of Government for raising the Pay of the Sweepers from Rs 5 to Rs 6/-

2. In case the proposal meets with the approval of Government, reappropriation of funds from the next year's budget provisions will
